June 23rd, 1930.

HON. J. E. BROWNLEE,
Premier of Alberta
Whose government was returned

CRUICKSHANK ELECTED

EASILY

George E. Cruickshank, Independent candidate, was easily elected in the Rocky Mountain constituency, defeating the nearest candidate by upwards of 700 votes. The Labor ranks were split between Labor and Communists, which probably split fate for Labor.

The results of the polls disclosed that the Communistic element were gaining a stronghold in the Crow's Nest Pass, the greatest surprise of all being in the small community of Frank, where Communists secured 71 of the 114 votes polled. Hillcrest, the home town of the Labor and Independent candidates, gave Cruickshank 181 of the 343 votes recorded, Stobbs securing 88 and Sudworth 79; while Coleman, the home town of the Communist, also placed Cruickshank in the lead. Cruickshank's biggest support, however, came from Blaimore, where a splendid organization of Liberals and Conservatives proved effective.

The free hand of congratulations has been handed to Mr. Cruickshank from all corners of the riding and it is confidently felt that never in the history of the riding has such a promise of capable administration been given.

DEATH OF SAMUEL DAVIS

Samuel Davis, a Welsh miner, passed away at the Stewart hospital on Friday morning last, following a very brief attack of pneumonia.

Less than a week previous, he was taken ill, and his death was quite unexpected. He was a native of Wales and came to Canada but eighteen months ago to work side by side with his brother Jack at the Sunburst mine here. His mother predeceased him in March last, leaving an aged father to survive him in the old land and his lone brother here.

Sam was very well known and highly respected by all with whom he came into contact, and his passing at the early age of thirty-five years is a distinct blow to his friends in this district. For the greater portion of last year, he was unable to work on account of blood poison in one of his hands, and it was only recently that he had been able to resume his vacation as a miner.

Funeral took place on Sunday afternoon, under auspices of the Local Union and the Blaimore Branch of the British Empire Service League, and was very largely attended. Short services at the Ferguson Undertaking parlor and at the graveside were conducted by Rev. A. D. Currie, and the remains were laid to rest as the Last Post was sounded in the Blaimore Protestant cemetery.

With his bereaved brother and father, and other relatives in the Old Land, we join in sympathy.

The B'g Horn and Saunders Creek Collieries Ltd., are very busy at present, on repair work. They are not sparing any expense in getting ready for a bumper crop—no, I mean a record output. Morgan says he will send his coal to Russia, if they will buy it.—Saunders Note N. Red Deer Advocate.

Charged with assaulting Chief of Police Duncan, a man name Pitt was found guilty and a penalty of $50 and costs or six weeks in jail was meted out in the local police court yesterday.

Bequest for Scientific Work

One Fourth of Nansen's Fortune Goes To Fund

One-fourth of the fortune of Fridtjof Nansen is to be applied to the Nansen fund. Extracts from the explorer's will, read before the Norwegian Society of Science at Oslo, recently, revealed that the fund, which is used for scientific work, will benefit to the extent of $25,000.

The directors of the fund will administer the estate, the interest on which goes to Dr. Nansen's sister. The Nansen Fund has made large grants for several Norwegian polar and oceanographic expeditions in recent years.

Farmers in Public Life

The Farmer's Advocate says: "Farmers are getting a grip on things politically. Honourable Walter Laid, a farmer in Prince Edward Island, is now Premier of his Province; Honourable John Bracken, a trained agriculturist, is Premier of Manitoba, and his Honour J. D. McGregor, a noted breeder of Aberdeen-Angus cattle, is Lieutenant-Governor of the same Province.

A Long Felt Want

"Men who desire such dilutions," says the Rev. C. E. Macartney, D.D., "can drink decaffeinated coffee and smoke decaffeinated tobacco, and now we have on every hand decaffeinated Christianity." But up to the hour of going to press, there seemed to be no hope for decaffeinated jazz, decaffeinated elections, and decaffeinated weather. Nor even for decaffeinated taxes.

Dr. Doolittle Again Makes Trans-Canada Tour

Dr. P. E. Doolittle, who is now serving his eleventh term as president of the Canadian Automobile Association, has driven to the coast again and is now in Vancouver awaiting the start of the "Golden Twilight" caravan of the provincial government to the northern Cariboo district. This time the cross-country driver came from Toronto to Vancouver, travelling over 3,163 miles of roads, most of which were in Canada, within ten days.

After concluding his tour with the provincial government caravan, Dr. Doolittle plans to turn east at Kamloops, and drive back again across Canada and to the Atlantic ocean.

War Books Losing Their Popularity

Output Continues Enormous But Sales Falling Off

War books, which have been appearing in great numbers in Europe, are reported to be losing their popularity there. While the output continues to be enormous in many countries, dealers are beginning to complain that they cannot sell near the number they have on hand. Russia is said to be the only nation which did not catch the war-books craze. When Sheriff recently presented an autographed copy of "Journey's End," to the Imperial War Museum in London, England, the museum announced that it had 50,000 volumes of war books.

When the Canadian Confederation was established in 1867, four diverse units of British territory in the north-eastern section of the continent agreed to come together and forget, as far as possible, their differences. Since they all retained their provincial status, however, with the necessary, and also some unnecessary, governmental machinery in each case, there was still plenty of room for argument. If the Fathers of Confederation (who rightly received so many tributes during the Jubilee celebration three years ago), could not adjust the situation between the Federal jurisdiction and that of the four units which had been established for generations, how could they be expected to foresee and care for problems relating to a new territory subsequently taken into the union? It simply wasn't done, for the reason that it couldn't be done.

Manitoba Jubilee Impressions

Celebrations In July To Mark the Sixtieth Anniversary of Manitoba's Admission Into Confederation

(By Old Timer)

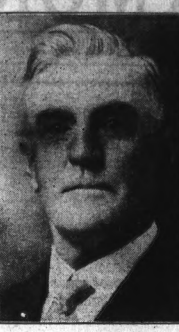

Men who have lived in Manitoba since the early days, and especially those who were born here, love to recall the various fights or squabbles in which the Province was involved during the first half-century of its corporate existence. Most of the questions raised in the stormy days their origin in the well-known constitutional fog which seemed to have always surrounded the relationship of a Province, particularly a "new one," to the Federal authority. The learned Solons who drew up the British North America Act, as well as the more or less wise ones who carved it up before it became law, failed to take into account many of the big problems that have developed since. For that reason they were unable to lay down in plain words the points of distinction between the respective jurisdictions. Many and varied were the legal and political battles that ensued. The present differences are so mild that by comparison it might almost be said that negotiations are now conducted in silence.

When the Canadian Confederation was established in 1867, four diverse units of British territory in the north-eastern section of the continent agreed to come together and forget, as far as possible, their differences. Since they all retained their provincial status, however, with the necessary, and also some unnecessary, governmental machinery in each case, there was still plenty of room for argument. If the Fathers of Confederation (who rightly received so many tributes during the Jubilee celebration three years ago), could not adjust the situation between the Federal jurisdiction and that of the four units which had been established for generations, how could they be expected to foresee and care for problems relating to a new territory subsequently taken into the union? It simply wasn't done, for the reason that it couldn't be done.

The Diamond Jubilee celebrations through the Province on July 15 next, are intended chiefly to mark the sixtieth anniversary of the admission of Manitoba into Confederation, and there is no doubt they will be a case be worthy of the occasion. When the event actually took place in 1870, there was much shaking of heads, particularly in the East, about the wisdom of the step. A review of the litigation and other trouble that has followed would seem to justify some of the doubts, and it is a matter for congratulation now that these have been dispelled. Manitoba was the first of the new territories to be absorbed, and her problems were without precedent, insofar as her relations with the "rest of the family" were concerned. It is little wonder, then, that when trouble did arise there was plenty of it. This Province was variously regarded as the "newcomer," the "stormy petrel" or the "ugly duckling," according to the particular viewpoint of the politician who was expressing an opinion on the subject. Whatever the occasion, Manitoba was prominently in the limelight. Whether it was in the matter of railway competition, enlargement and adjustment of boundaries, educational autonomy, insufficient subsidies, or control of certain phases of commercial affairs, there was at no time any doubt about Manitoba's position. If there was a fight, she was supposed to be in it, like the mythical Irishman. What is more, she not only desired to be in it, but she had her wish gratified to the full.

From the standpoint of material advancement, the most important battle was that in connection with the boundaries. When the Province was instituted in 1870, it was a tiny affair, and was facetiously likened to a "postage-stamp." After a little more than ten years of discussions the Government headed by Sir John Macdonald at Ottawa, arranged to have the boundaries greatly extended. Indeed, under the proposed scheme a large section of what is now Western Ontario, including the town of Rat Portage (Kenora), would have come under the jurisdiction of Manitoba. But the Ontario Government, under the leadership of Hon. Oliver Mowat, saw a fine chance to raise a commotion, and it was duly raised. When the smoke and haze of legal action had cleared, it was found that the Mowat Government had won out, and Manitoba's eastern boundary was fixed in its present location. There was no Mowat to interfere with the westward extension, so that the boundary was pushed out about 130 miles without difficulty. Finally in 1912, a large and important section in the north was added, giving the Province a long stretch of seaboard on Hudson Bay, including two possible ports, Nelson and Churchill. The telling about this boundary fight is simple enough, but a large volume would be required to record the history in detail. The same is true of the disputes, some of which made or unmade political reputations of various parts of the country. The sequel has been that Manitoba has come to symbolize the protection of Western rights and Western interests. She has played and is still playing an important part in the affairs of Canada.

ELECTED GRAND MASTER

Of Vanguard, Sask., who has been elected Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of Saskatchewan, L.O.O.F. for the year 1930-31. Other officers elected: Deputy Grand Master, M. A. Fletcher, Colgate; J. M. Clark, Yorkton, deputy grand warden; grand secretary, F. B. Gray, Regina; grand treasurer, H. E. Armstrong, Regina; grand representative, Hugh Green Watson; grand representative for two years, J. A. Hagerman, Unity.

Is Easily Mastered

The art of swimming is so agreeable and so easily mastered and the places where it is taught by competent teachers, are now so numerous in our cities that even urbanites ought not to grow to maturity without being able to do what any poor fish can. Country youth generally finds a "swimmin' ole" and teaches itself.

The owner of a popular brand of car was having trouble in starting his engine.

After watching for ten minutes the man wrestle with the starting handle a little while he asked his father:

"How far will it go after he has finished winding it?"

Another good thing about old Dobbin. He didn't leap ahead and attack a telephone pole when a bee stung the driver.

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON JUNE 29

ATTEMPTS AT APPRAISING CHRIST

Golden Text: "Thou art the Christ, the Son of the living God."—Matthew 16:16.

Devotional Reading: Isaiah 22:4.

Explanations and Comments

In the triumphal procession of the Roman conqueror, kings and princes walked as captives in the emperor's train. Thus all the greatest men of the past generation seem to have joined Christ's triumphal procession. Let us call the roll of the great. Among Carlyle's last words were these: "The most important event ever transacted in this world is the life and death of the Divine Man in Judea, at once the symptom and cause of innumerable changes to all people in the world." By exclamation John Ruskin will be voted the first place among the English prose writers of the last two centuries. But Ruskin says his life "has been dedicated not to the study of the beautiful in face and flower, in landscape and gallery, but to an interpretation of the truth and beauty of Jesus Christ." Another man, Matthew Arnold said: "Christ came to reveal what righteousness really is. For nothing will do, except righteousness; and no other conception of righteousness will do, except Christ's conception of it. His method and secret." James Marlineau asserts that Christ must be called "the regenerator of the human race. The world has changed and that change is historically traceable to Christ." We know that Shakespeare, perhaps the greatest intellect ever known in its wide and many-sidedness, paid the lowest reverence to Christ in passage after passage. All the great poets of our age, Longfellow, Browning and Tennyson, unite in saying:—

"Thou seemest human and divine; The holiest, holiest manhood thou; Our souls are ours, we know not why; Our wills are ours to make them thine."

Newell Dwight Hillis, in "The Influence of Christ in Modern Life."

His Constant Companion

Captain Carried Purple Silk Umbrella With Him Everywhere

In Wilton, Holstein, Henry Moeller, 15, decided to go to sea, sailed on a clipper ship for Hongkong. His aunt said goodbye to him and presented Henry Moeller with an umbrella of purple silk with a carved snake-wood handle. "It will be handy in case it rains," she said. In 1890, Henry Moeller became captain of the "Lackawanna" Railroad's river barges. In 1903, he became captain of tugs for the Hamburg-American Line. In 1920, he retired and went to live in Honolulu, where, he often sat in the back room of Meyer's Hotel, drinking beer with other old captains. Recently he died. His daughter obeyed his request to place, under the dirty, salt-stiffened coat in which Henry Moeller was buried, the purple silk umbrella which he had carried on all his voyages, short or long.

Motor Fuel in Western Canada

Unlimited Quantities Can Be Commercially Produced in Northern Alberta

Gasoline in almost unlimited quantities can be commercially produced from oil sands in Northern Alberta, according to Dr. E. H. Boomer, of the University of Alberta, addressing the National Research Council. A new method which yields light oils suitable for the production of gasoline is credited to Dr. Boomer and Dr. A. K. Clark, also of the University of Alberta, and a semi-commercial plant, now in operation, shows, it is said, that Western Canada, at least, will shortly be independent in the production of motor fuel.

Food For Babies

Food Question Is a Serious One In the Hot Days of Summer

Hot summer weather is very trying on babies and the food question is a serious one every mother must solve correctly if her infant is to avoid ailments common in this period. Breast feeding is obviously best for baby, but it happens in so many cases that this is impractical. Rather than experiment with all sorts of foods it is wise to use one that is safe and highly nutritious. Eagle Brand Condensed Milk has been used continuously since 1857 and is highly recommended by leading physicians as a safe, pure, easily digested food for bottled babies. It is a supply pure milk and pure granulated sugar. Baby's food is easily made up according to directions on the can. Eagle Brand is especially satisfactory in difficult feeding cases. Frequently it agrees perfectly with babies who cannot assimilate any other food. Mothers who would appreciate a very helpful booklet on the care and feeding of baby may obtain a copy of "Baby's Welfare" from the Borden Co., Ltd., Montreal, free, if they mention this paper when writing.

Chinese Children Starve

More than 200,000 children have died of famine in Northern China since January, according to Commissioner MacKenzie, of the Salvation Army. The Commissioner, who recently returned to Australia from China, said that 60,000 Chinese wives and daughters had been sold for $2 or $3 each to provide food for the remainder of their families.

"You on a vacation?" questioned Grandma with a smile.

"Not so's you'd notice it," replied Jim, taking what Grandma called "the visitor's chair," and throwing his hat onto the table. "I've been to Eastboro on business, and as George K. Doesn't expect me back till after lunch, I thought I'd pass the time of day with you. How's everything?"

You mean Charman?" queried Grandma suddenly.

"Toud have make a first rate detective, Grandma," was Jim's retort; and the old lady laughed.

"Well," she responded, "the last I saw of 'everything' was when she left for school. The doctor offered to take her in his car, but she said she wanted to walk as I suspected she had something on her mind."

"What?" asked Jim, and added with caution, "Something to do with school?"

"My idea was," answered the old lady, "that it was something to do with you, Jim."

"Yes," said Grandma. "Maybe I'm all wrong, sonny, but I thought she was feeling sort of hurt that you never told her, when you were riding yesterday, that you and your mother were going to California."

"I meant to," explained Jim, "but my mind got taken up with other things. Then, too, I didn't know that Uncle George was going to blab so soon. Not that I care, because Mother's going to tell Lizzie Baker this morning and ask her to do some sewing for her before we start. Besides, I knew it didn't make much difference to Charman whether I was in California or Timbuctoo."

"I donno why you should say that, Jimmy. You haven't got a better friend in town than my girl is—unless it's me."

Jim's young eyes looked suddenly weary, and his mouth grim.

"It's something more than friendship that I want from Charman, Grandma. No use pretending, is it—to you anyway? And it's plain to see that she's giving the thing I want to someone else. Why should she care whether I go West or not?"

Grandma looked out of the window for a moment, but seeing nothing to comment upon, turned back to Jim.

"I presume you mean she's falling in love with Doctor Carter?"

Jim nodded.

"I donno as I like you saying that, Jim," said the old lady. "Suppose now, he didn't fall in love with her."

"Great grief! How could he help it—living right here in the same house with her this way?"

"He knows a sight o' girls back in the city," said Grandma wisely. "There's pictures of two of 'em on his bureau, and another in his watch. I saw it the day my clock stopped and I asked him to set it for me. Maybe he isn't in love with Charman at all."

"He is," asserted Jim. "D'you ever watch 'em walk down the street together? He goes sort of sideways, Grandma, so he can look at her all the time."

Grandma reached out to lay a tender hand on Jim's strong, tanned fist. "If think you've got a chance, sonny," she said.

"I'd like to agree with you," he responded, "but I don't. He's got something I haven't got, and I'm not so dumb that I don't see it. Perhaps if I'd gone to college—rubbed off some of the Wickfield—er—provincialism" (even in this bitter moment the eyes that met Grandma's showed a glint of humor). "I could have acquired it, even if I was born in this little onehorse burg. But it's too late now. I see where I got off, but—there's something I'd like Charman to understand, and, somehow, I can't make myself tell her. Every time I begin, the words stick in my throat."

"That's why I stopped in this morning when I knew she wouldn't be here, I thought if I told you, Grandma, maybe you'd explain to her after I get away. It's about—Mother."

"Yes?" urged the old lady as he paused.

"It's this way," Jim continued. "A good many times Charman, and other people, too, have sort of implied that I don't dare breathe without first asking my mother if it's agreeable to her. You get me?"

"And they're right, to a certain extent," he confessed honestly. "But it's not easy, Grandma, always thinking of some one else before yourself, even if she's your own mother. There've been times."

He hesitated again, and Grandma said, "I know sonny. I understand. You've been a splendid son, Jim, but—"

"I know what you're going to say," he interrupted. "And it's no use, even if I have got my own life to live. You see, Grandma, I was only a kid when my father died, but he asked me then—when he was going—to always look after Mother and be good to her. Somehow—I've never been able to forget it."

"Well!" breathed Grandma. It was an exclamation of surprise. She sank back a little in her chair, regarding the young man's sober face with new eyes.

"And you promised, Jim?"

Jim nodded, and went on: "I've thought, since I got old enough to think it out, that perhaps he didn't mean me to take it so literally. Or he may not have realized how Mother would get to—well, depend upon me. He wouldn't have wanted me to make a promise that would spoil my life; and there've been times, Grandma, when I've felt as if it had. But don't you ever tell that—even to Charman!" he added loyally. "He was a good man—my father."

"One of the best," responded Grandma. "One of the finest. I'm sure that he never meant you to take that promise the way you have. He was dying, Jim. He knew better than any one else knew, how your mother was going to miss him; and all he wanted was that you should help her out over the hard sledding, not that you should bury yourself in the drifts for her sake. I'm an old woman, Jimmy. My time's not far away, and I know how folks feel about such things. You see, you've been obeying the letter of that promise, not its spirit, which your father meant you to obey."

"You believe that"—honestly, Grandma?

"Implicitly, son," said Grandma Davis.

Jim arose and patted her shoulder clumsily.

"You've helped me a lot," he said. "It would be a pity if I couldn't with seventy-eight years behind me!" she answered, smiling up at him; "And don't worry about Charman's misunderstanding you. I'll make her

"But not till we've gone, please," said Jim, reaching for his hat.

"That's for you to say, Jim. When are you going?"

"Within a fortnight. The doctor wants Mother to get away before cold weather. It'll be some change from Wickfield, Grandma!"

"It'll do you good. Maybe you'll meet some of those movie vampires and fall before 'em."

Jim laughed. It was what Grandma wanted and was working for; but she added wistfully as he reached the door: "I'm going to miss you, Jimmy."

"And believe me, I'm going to miss you!" had responded warmly as he turned away.

CHAPTER XVIII.

The Bennetts had been gone a month. Their big house facing the common, which had been Sarah Bennett's pride for thirty years, was closed for the first time in its existence, the shining plate glass windows boarded over because, Jim told his mother, boys are the same from one generation to another, and a window-panes in an empty house is a source of irretrievable temptation. Coming from the library one Saturday afternoon, Charman paused to look up at its grim coldness, thinking that the house seemed hardly more forbidding now than in the days when the front shades were relentlessly pulled down to keep a ray of sun from penetrating the gloom within, and, possibly, fading the precious parlor carpet that had come from Boston when Sarah was a bride.

Only the iron dogs that guarded the big front door looked different. They seemed, thought the girl whimsically, forlorn, and patiently unhappy, with drifts of snow on their leys backs and between their ears. Jim remembered, had always kept them brushed clean of snow. They had been his playmates, and Charman's. Towser and Mouser, they called them. How many miles, she wondered, had she and Jimmy ridden those iron steeds.

She was moving on, but at a sudden impulse turned about, and going up the path to the patient canines, brushed the light snow with a mittened hand. The dogs regarded her stealthily around and seeing no one, she reached out hastily and gave them each a pat. Jim had once told her in a burst of half-shamed confidence, that he patted them every morning when he went to work. To gether they had laughed at the idea, but Charman did not laugh now. Indeed she seemed to her as she regarded the sidewalk and glanced back at them, that the dogs looked more cheerful. She could, indeed, almost hear the thump of two hard, metallic tails!

"Going my way?"

Charman turned, startled. The old doctor's shabby car had drawn up beside her, and he was leaning forward, an invitation in his kindly eyes.

"I was going home," she answered, "loaded with Sunday reading matter, you see; but if you don't be gone too long I'd adore a ride."

The old man beamed with pleasure. "And I'd adore your company, my dear. Ride in behind for my old cape, and wrap it round you. There are colds enough this time of year without adding to the number, and that coat of yours is none too warm a day like this."

"You're right," said the girl, dragging the worn old cape from the back seat, and smuggling into it. "I'm planning to go to Portland after Christmas and indulge in a new one, provided I can find a bargain. It's pretty cold on those early morning walks of mine, though John has been a trump about taking me in his car on the worst days."

She (somehow foggy on musical matters)—"Is Bach composing much now?"

"No, madam, he's decomposing."

How She Saw It

An Irish girl was imported from the Emerald Isle to act as general servant for a middle-class household. Her mistress suggested to her the propriety of sending a post card to her relatives with news of her safe arrival and assurance of her welfare. The girl did so, and added the following brief impression of her environment: "I came here in a cab without a horse; they play the piano with their feet, and they shout at people in the hall that aren't there!"

Everything Special

A special carpet in two shades of pink was woven for the June wedding of Miss Gage, heiress of the Woolworth millions. A gardener grew roses of the same shade as her dress, and a designer specially studied Miss Gage, in order to "absorb her personality," before designing her wedding dress.

May Replace House Names With Numbers

London Suburbanites Do Not Take Kindly To Idea

A shiver of apprehension is going down the spina columns of residents in many classy little suburban areas. The registrar-general, in making preparations for the general census, is to be held next year, is appealing to local authorities to have all houses "adequately numbered."

Therefore it is that a great disquiet has settled upon the owner-occupier of the "bljoo residence," the "charming villa," and the "eligible bungalow."

Are all those dinky boards with legends as "The Oaks," "The Elms," "Mon Repos," "Clovelly," "Chez Nous," "Fair View" and so forth to be scrapped and their place to be taken by a vulgar fraction or at any rate a vulgar numeral? The registrar-general suggests postmen are apt to lose their way, or at the least their competence at delivery among all those Arcadian descriptive efforts.

It is to be feared the registrar will have his way, assuming that the local authorities are of his way of thinking. The latter possess powers to compel "The Limes" to be unimpressive 36, and for "The Nook" to suffer the indignity of being labelled plain 17.

Graves Of Heroes Moved

Work Has Been Completed By British War Graves Commission

Removal of the graves of 450 British and Dominion soldiers from the cemetery at Ploegsteert, Belgium, to a spot about half a mile away, has been completed and the long dispute over the matter has been settled, according to an announcement of the British War Graves Commission.

During the World War, the cemetery was constructed beside the ruins of Chateau Rosenberg, which had been destroyed only a short time before. After the war, the owner of the chateau, a Frenchman living in Belgium, announced that he desired to rebuild the chateau and that the graves would be too close to the reconstructed building. After several years of negotiation, the offer of the owner to donate land for the new cemetery was accepted and the bodies were removed.

BACKWARD BABIES

Thrive After Use Of Baby's Own Tablets

Derangements of the digestive organs are responsible for most of the ailments which afflict young children, and keep them backward in development. Baby's Own Tablets regulate the stomach and bowels, restoring them to normal action and this is all that is necessary to set the little sufferer safely on the road to health and happiness.

Baby's Own Tablets are specially designed to correct indigestion, constipation, colic, break up colds and simple fevers and to allay teething pains. They are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

An Extraordinary Experience

Wife Of English Peer Talked To Him From Mid-Atlantic

An extraordinary experience befell Lord Brecknock at the Aldwych Theatre, London, England. He was sitting cozily in the stalls with a small party, when a theatre attendant approached him and said "Mid-Atlantic wants you." Scarcely understanding what it was all about, he suffered himself to be led to the telephone and spoke to Lady Brecknock, who had called him from the "Majestic" with as much ease and calm as though it was all making a local call. It is a proof of the efficiency of the telephone service that he was located at the theatre in question within four minutes of the call having been put in at his house in London.

Girl Chooses Novel Engagement Gift

Every Blind Person In Her Home County Will Receive Radio Set

A man who recently became engaged to a Gloucestershire girl asked her to choose something as an engagement gift. The result of her choice is that every blind person in the county who is without a wireless set will be given one. The total cost will amount to about $50,000. The gift includes the cost of maintaining the set. The donor does not desire the identity of his fiancée or himself to be revealed.

Little Helps For This Week

"Thou shalt give unto the Lord thy God according as the Lord thy God hath blessed thee."—Deut. xvi. 10.

For the best that thou canst be in the service asked of thee.

The Almighty, in His providence, does not ask of us uniform terms for our rights and lives, as earthly landlords sometimes do. He only asks for the rightful use of the talent entrusted to us. The taxes of Heaven are never per capita, but always pro rata. Not the mere observance of each and all alike, but every heart's desire, every hand's rosiest service. Not the number of acres you till, but the quality of your tillage determines the profit of the harvest in spiritual as well as material farming. This standard exacts no promise, but it accepts no apology; for there is no occasion for apology when you have done all you can.—Jenkins Lloyd Jones.

Mosquitoes Prefer Blondes

Although the Brunette Is Not Entirely Overlooked By This Pest

Mosquitoes prefer blondes and will pass up a brunette nine times out of ten when there is a blonde in sight. This was the assertion of Herman Horning, city entomologist and an authority on mosquitoes and their habits.

"Light-colored and fine-skinned people are more attractive to light," explained Mr. Horning. "They are easily attracted to light-colored faces, both men and women, and seem to prefer fair people to dark."

"Another noticeable thing is that in fields where mosquitoes buzz around cows or horses it will be found that light-colored animals are the greater sufferers."

Mr. Horning made it clear, however, that the brunette was not entirely overlooked by the mosquito. Philadelphia Ledger.

All Branches Represented

All branches of organized activity in the Province of Manitoba were represented at a meeting in Winnipeg, where plans for Manitoba's second jubilee celebration on July 15th were launched. The celebration will commemorate the 60th anniversary of the province's entry into confederation.

Unless worms be expelled from the system, no child can be healthy. Mother Graves' Worm Exterminator is an excellent medicine to destroy worms.

AMERICAN TOURISTS SPEND $89,000,000 IN CANADA

WASHINGTON, D.C., June 25.—In 1929 United States visitors to Canada spent about $289,000,000 and Canadians spent in the United States about $91,000,000.

Of the amount of United States money which flowed over the border, about $268,744,000 went by motor car. A table prepared by the Department of Commerce on the basis of questionnaires furnished automobile tourists, estimates the gross expenditures of three groups of automobiles during 1929 was as follows: 60-day cars, $163,652,000; 1-day cars, $44,416,000; 6-month cars, $676,000.

With the usual graphic twist beloved of analysts, the department's statistician evolves this figure: "The $58,809 automobiles imported into Canada for touring purposes in 1929, if allowed 15 feet of space each, would make a traffic jam reaching more than half way round the equator."

SOMETHING FOR COMPOSITORS TO WORRY ABOUT

Professional joiners will be interested in the important announcement of the formation of the Reichskartell von Spitzenverbänden der Kraftfahrzeugwirtschaft.

Reichskartell von Spitzenverbänden der Kraftfahrzeugwirtschaft is the name of a new organization in Germany, which includes in its membership 2,000 garage owners, repair shops, motorcycle dealers, driving schools and tire dealers. It is a trade organization formed for mutual help and co-operation.

Many other outstanding long distance records have been made this year.

HEAVY FINES IMPOSED ON SOLLOWAY AND MILLS

A jail term for Isaac William Cannon Solloway of four months and a sentence of one month in jail for James Harvey Mills heads of Solloway, Mills & Company, Limited, were imposed upon the accused, in addition to fines totalling $250,000, by His Lordship, Mr. Justice Ives in the Supreme Court of Alberta at the conclusion of the sixteen-day trial on Monday afternoon. The fines were paid.

They were found guilty on all four conspiracy charges and given prison terms on each count, with fines on two counts, each. His Lordship imposed an additional penalty of 25 months in jail, with hard labor, if fines were not paid.

The four counts in the one indictment of conspiracy were as follows:

1. That the accused did conspire to defraud the public.
2. That the accused did conspire in contravention of the Criminal Code.
3. That the accused did conspire to affect the public market price of stocks.
4. That the accused did conspire to commit a contravention of section 231 of the Criminal Code.

CALGARY EXHIBITION AND STAMPEDE

Once again the Calgary Exhibition and Stampede hopes to make new records at their annual show, July 7th to 12th. Active preparations have been going on for several months in the splendid new administration building, erected on the Exhibition grounds, and said to be the finest exhibition office in Canada.

Price lists and illustrated literature are now available for distribution and may be had on application to the Exhibition offices, Calgary, Alberta. There is a prize list for the general exhibition classes, a prize list for the Stampede and a special age programme.

It is expected that fully 275,000 people will attend this year's Exhibition and Stampede, the attendance having increased from 97,000 in 1922 to 258,000 last year. The event is unique in thrills and interest, and includes live stock, Industrial, Domestic and Government exhibits, the Stampede, the Stampede Parade, Morning Indian Displays, running acts, Cowboy Ball, Band Contest, marvellous Amusements and Fireworks.

The Calgary Exhibition has the second largest grandstand in Canada and yet it is not large enough to accommodate the tremendous crowds who wish to see the spectacular programme which is arranged each year for Exhibition patrons. Last year 24,000 people enjoyed the marvellous Saturday night programme, undoubtedly a record only exceeded by the Canadian National Exhibition.

Special passenger fares will be in force from Saskatchewan, Alberta and British Columbia mainland points, and tourists rates may be obtained from any place to Banff and Lake Louise, with stopover privileges at Calgary.

The week's events start with the wonderful Stampede Parade at 10 a.m., Monday, and close with the marvellous display by the Indians, the presentation of prizes to Stampede champions and the greatest fireworks programme ever seen in Western Canada.

Sleeping accommodation at hotels or private homes may be obtained through the Alberta Hotel Association, Calgary. Before or after the Calgary Exhibition and Stampede is an excellent time to visit Banff and Lake Louise, reached in three hours, over fine hard surfaced roads from Calgary.

Stampede entries close July 3rd.

DOCKS NOT SO BAD

The following comment on the Doukhobors is from the Kamloops Sentinel. They may be right.

A visitor here the other day mentioned the fact that he had recently been to Brilliant, where he frequently seen members of the Doukhobor colony. For these people, he said, he had the greatest respect and he considered that they were worthy and industrious citizens, whose vagaries, which are only occasional, and based always on religious zeal, should be overlooked. Had the fanatics which recently were taken to the coast to do imprisonment been handled in the right manner in the first place, he said, there would have been no trouble at all. Taking them to the coast to do time was a great and expensive blunder.

It is interesting to realize that these people manage without handling money for the most part, although of course the administration of their affairs requires sound book-keeping and payments through the banks. The rank and file are satisfied with a freedom from financial responsibility when they feel their needs are provided for and there is no fear of penalty during old age. Last year the Doukhobor jam factory packed three million pounds of jam. These folk are real producers and deserve our respect.

The Baxter government was returned in New Brunswick, with a slight reduction of majority.

REFLECTION

Life is a mirror; we hold the glass and turn it to suit our need. For each frown we give it as we pass, It gives one back with speed; For each smile, it seems to multiply, And more often two return. Anger and malice, too, it shows If in your heart they burn. So give it a smile, the best you can, And know that it mirrors true. For it never fails, if you give of your best, To give the best back to you.

EAST KOOTENAY POWER EARNINGS 1929 33 INCREASE

Continuation of the company's consistent record of expansion in revenues and earnings is revealed in the annual report of East Kootenay Power Co., Ltd. covering the period ended March 31, 1930. Gross revenue for the year shows a gain of $7,000 and, after all expenses and charges and dividends on the preferred stock, earnings applicable to the 70,000 shares of common stock were equivalent to $1.09 a share as compared with 54 cents a share on the junior security for the preceding fiscal period.

In the operating statement, electric revenue of $584,766 compares with $498,229 for the previous year and miscellaneous revenue of $964 brings gross revenue to $585,730, up from $498,755. Deductions for purchased power, operating expenses, taxes and maintenance leave net income of $354,850 as compared with $317,416 and, after interest charges of $252,030, net earnings applicable to dividends on the preferred stock are shown at $102,820 or 1.47 times requirements. Deduction of preferred dividends of $70,000 leaves surplus for the year of $32,820 as against $16,101 for the preceding year.

The balance sheet again reflects the steady improvements and additions to the company's plants and property. Total assets are over $250,000 higher at $5,286,030, being almost entirely represented by plant investment, which is shown up at $5,255,641 from $5,032,179. Among the liabilities, funded debt is shown down at $2,192,000 from $2,215,500, serial notes and bank overdraft have been eliminated; bills payable are up at $1,662,043 from $1,139,702, and accounts payable are down at $38,954 from $111,183.

In submitting the report to shareholders, President A. J. Nesbitt says, in part:

"The territory served, namely,

Southern British Columbia and the Crow's Nest Pass in Alberta, has been growing steadily and demand for power has improved proportionately. Furthermore, the coal mines are gradually completing the electrification of their properties. The general improvement in business conditions is also reflected in the earnings of our company.

"Late last fall, arrangements were made with the Calgary Power Company Limited for interconnection of our systems. Necessary work has been completed and benefits are bound to result from the transfer of power from time to time as may be most economical.

"Considerable additional exploration work has been done at Phillips Canyon and plans are under way to eventually develop 20,000 h.p. at this power site."

SPRUCES AFFECTED
A malady afflicting many spruce trees this year in Alberta, is aphid galls, and the following suggestions have been made for treatment. If only a few trees are affected, the galls should be removed at once and destroyed. If a large number are injured, they should be sprayed with kerosene emulsion, one part stock solution to two parts of water. This spray should be done early next spring before the trees begin to bud. It must not be applied after growth starts as it will burn the trees at the time.

Gum-Dipped Cords Stand the Acid Test

Even though Firestone cords are of superior strength and elasticity before they are built into Firestone Tires, they go through the Gum-Dipping process for added strength and endurance.

Gum-Dipping—exclusive to Firestone Tires—saturates and insulates every fibre of every cord in the tire. This prevents the cords from chafing against each other and eliminates internal friction and heat—the greatest enemy to tire life.

Thus Firestone Gum-Dipped Tires have double reasons for their toughness, ruggedness and unequalled mileage—by actual test they hold all world's records for mileage and endurance! Specify Firestone Gum-Dipped Tires on your car. See your nearest Firestone Dealer today.

MACKO-JENKINS

A wedding of interest was solemnized at St. Mark's Anglican church, Calgary, at 11 o'clock on June 21,
when Lillian Eleanor Jenkins, R. N., eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sydney Jenkins, became the bride of Dmyter O. Macko, of Coleman, Alta.,
Rev. Arthur Wylie, M.A., officiating.
The bridal march from Lohengrin and Edward Britop were ushers.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a graceful gown of white satin and lace. Her long flowing veil fitted closely about the head, was becomingly knotted at each side with orange blossoms. She carried a colonial bouquet of roses and lilies of the valley.

Miss Mabel G. Cox, R.N., gowned in coral georgette with picture hat to match, acted as bridesmaid, and carried a sheaf of gladioli.

Eileen Jenkins, small sister of the bride, as flower girl, was daintily dressed in pale yellow and carried a basket of mauve sweet peas.

Wilfred Peaker, C. A. (Winnipeg), attended the groom.

The bride's mother chose for the occasion a gown of beige georgette with hat to match. Her flowers were roses. After a reception held at the

SHORT SKIRTS SAFE

London, Eng.—Another argument for short skirts has been advanced here by the Bishop of Barking. He says that short skirts and cream-colored silk stockings promote safety on highways. When girls are walking along roads, headlights of oncoming motorists catch the reflection of stockings as revealed by short skirts thus enabling them to avoid the young ladies.

The Problem of Markets

It may be poor consolation to the wheat producers of Western Canada, who are in a quandary over the problem of selling their product in the markets of the world at a price which will yield to them a reasonable profit over the cost of production, to learn that they are by no means the only producers of a commodity used throughout the world who find themselves in difficulty of a like kind. And because the producers of these primary commodities are experiencing difficulty in finding markets, the makers of secondary and manufactured articles are also feeling the pinch, and find themselves overstocked with goods which they cannot at the moment sell.

The situation which exists is not one that affects Canada alone, or any one commodity alone, but the whole world. It is a problem of over-production in the majority of cases. It affects not only the primary producers in all countries, and the manufacturers, but it reacts adversely upon every class of business and every individual. Because there is a glut of primary products the transportation companies are losing business, and in turn they are employing fewer men in their mail department. Merchants require less help because goods are being sold, office staffs are reduced, and the resultant shortage of money and of buying power on the part of everybody has slowed up or put a temporary stop to building construction activities.

No country in the world is immune from this present condition. It is world wide, but, fortunately, Canada is less seriously affected than any other of the great trading countries of the world.

While Canada's problem is wheat, Brazil's is coffee. While other countries grow coffee, notably Java and Arabia, Brazil is the great source of supply. It has been steadily increasing production, as have other countries, growing more coffee than the world could consume. In order to prevent prices falling to a ruinous figure below actual cost, Brazilian Governments bought up the surplus and kept it off the market, to be released in years of a short crop. The result is Brazil now has sufficient coffee on hand to meet total world requirements for two years, with another big crop coming on. The financial strain has proven too great, and that country is now endeavoring to float a huge loan, $100,000,000 or more, at a high rate of interest, and in doing so has given a pledge it will buy no more coffee, and will liquidate its present enormous holdings within ten years.

Sugar is in much the same position as coffee. In 1926-27 world production of sugar was placed at 23,750,000 tons, or about 300,000 tons less than consumption. The following year production exceeded consumption slightly, but in 1928-29 production jumped to over 27,000,000 tons, or far in excess of world requirements, while this year's estimates indicate a still greater production.

Cotton, too, joins the procession. In the last five years the United States produced on the average 40% more cotton than the average for the preceding ten years. The average for the ten-year period ending 1925, was about 11,000,000 bales; in 1926, about 15,000,000 bales were produced. Texas, formerly a great cattle ranching state, is now the greatest cotton producer among the states. Oklahoma is also going in strongly for cotton, and both states are using machinery, as against the old hand picking system, with a result similar to the revolution in wheat production through the introduction of the combine. One Texas farmer harvested 1,700 bales of cotton with five laborers, whereas under the system in the old cotton growing states 100 workers would have been required to plant and cultivate and 200 more to pick the crop by hand. It is estimated that Texas alone could produce twice as much cotton as present world needs.

Rubber, copper, tin, zinc, silk, and other basic commodities are all in the same class, production outstripping consumption, the increase in the latter not nearly equalling the increase in the former, and in regard to some commodities, silver for example, actually declining.

Coupled with this situation was the huge withdrawal of money and credit into the speculative stock market during the past two years, ending in the crash of some months ago. The effect was that farmers were deprived of their usual credit facilities, and this reacted unfavorably upon their retail purchasing, which, in turn, reacted upon consumption, consumption on manufacturing, manufacturing on labor, and labor on consumption. All business slowed up.

In the case of Malay rubber, Cuba sugar, Brazil coffee, the idea prevalent was that control of distribution was the same as control of production. As one writer says, there could be no greater mistake. Production is controlled by the direction and energy of human activity aided or retarded by forces of nature. Prices are arrived at by the relationship between supply and demand. If demand is greater than supply prices rise. If supply is greater than demand they fall.

In Canada, the source of national prosperity, it is now admitted, lies in the wheat crops of the West. World wheat production is steadily, even rapidly, increasing. The biggest problem, therefore, confronting Canada today, is to find a profitable, permanent market for its wheat. To the solution of that problem every Government, the Wheat Pools, farmers' organizations, manufacturers, merchants, citizens generally, must bend their energies and to it devote their best, most constructive thought.

Was Hero Of Sailing Adventure

Commander Eustace Maud, Aged Eighty-Two, Died in Victoria

The death took place, at Victoria, of Commander Eustace Maud, 82, of Mayne Island. He was born in England. A few years ago Commander Maud's achievement in sailing the ketch, "Half Moon," alone for 92 consecutive days attracted widespread attention.

In a 33-foot boat with four foot draft and seven foot beam he left Victoria with the intention of sailing through the Panama Canal to Europe. When off the coast of Mexico he was unfortunately struck on the head by the boom and rendered unconscious.

Bell-Ringer Is Pensioned

Swedish Woman Pulled Ropes For Thirty-Five Years

Sweden's last woman ringer of church bells, Augusta Anderson, who for 35 years has pulled the ropes in the tower of the old Katarina church in Stockholm, has been pensioned and electric machinery will now be installed.

Since 1898 Miss Anderson has attended to the tolling of the bells and only been absent once in twenty years ago, on account of illness. The first 10 years it was her duty to toll the bells on Sundays only, but later she became head bellringer, with nine other women to assist her.

The church has four bells, the largest of which needs six persons to swing it. The bells are rung every day at eight in the morning and at five in the afternoon.

Every man, woman and child in Canada, the report pointed out, had an interest in U.S. foreign trade amounting to $148.

More Remaining in Canada

Scientifically Trained Men Not Leaving In Such Large Numbers
A radical decrease in the number of scientifically trained men who find it necessary to leave Canada for employment was cited by Rev. Dr. H. J. Cody, chairman of the board of governors of the University of Toronto, in an address to the Canadian Manufacturers' Association there. Dr. Cody spoke of the work of the Technical Service Council, an organization founded in 1927. During the past year, 1,000 applications for trained men had been received, and 500 graduates had been placed in key positions in Canada. Since 1925 the percentage of the graduating class of Toronto University leaving the country had been reduced from 27 to 3 percent.

Northern Ontario Coal

Women Who Work

Modern Devices Have Not Altogether Eliminated Work in the Home

By some persons whose knowledge of housewives is limited those important members of society are supposed to have been relieved of the necessity of doing any physical work. Excessive feminine indulgence in amusements is assumed to be the sorry result.

Systematic inquiry shows a very different state of things. The bureau of home economics in the Federal Department of Agriculture reports that in country districts and in cities of less than 50,000 population women work in their homes considerably over forty-two hours a week, while the average among thousands of women questioned is fifty-one hours a week.

Plainly, vacuum cleaners, electric washing machines, telephones, can goods, delivery service and all the rest of the time saving and labor-saving devices have not reduced the housewife to demoralizing idleness. She is not yet threatened with ennui. There is no great danger of her finding too much leisure on her hands. Worry over her mental and moral condition in her supposed state of freedom from toil, is to say the least, premature.—Chicago News.

Fairly Satisfactory Proof

British Fishing Interests Have Decided That Advertising Pays

If the proof of the pudding is in the eating of it, the proof of advertising is in the using of it. So the British fishing interests decided. People ate fish in Great Britain in considerable quantities and had done so for generations. But, as the heads of the business saw it, they did not eat enough nor nearly as much as they would if properly educated in respect of the virtues of fish as a food.

The upshot of it all was that the fishing interests began an advertising campaign. They exhorted the public to "Eat More Fish" and told why. There were producers, of course. But the far-sighted leaders in the undertaking were confident that the public demand for their fish could be enlarged if they advertised widely and intelligently. They got the fish trade to appropriate for advertising one penny out of every pound sterling of value of fish caught. A small allowance, to be sure. But it effected an increase of more than $5,500,000 in the fishing industry's sales.

Fairly satisfactory proof, one might say, that advertising pays.

Will Use Western Flax Straw

Flax Straw To Go To Ireland

Many new methods are being evolved and machinery developed for cheapening flax for the spinner in northern Ireland as a direct result of the existing depression in the linen industry. G. B. Johnson, Canadian trade commissioner, has reported to the Department of Trade and Commerce, that in some cases it is claimed that the new methods will allow the use of Canadian western flax straw which has hitherto been burned as useless. Mr. Johnson reports that one important firm has arranged for a trial shipment of 50 tons of flax straw from the Dominion. This, however, is not for linen manufacture.

Interested in Canada's Railways

Many Questions Asked By People Antipodes

"One of the chief things that impressed me in both Australia and New Zealand was the intelligent interest the people showed in Canada," said R. B. Teakle, general manager Canadian National Steamships, who returned recently to Montreal from a trip which has taken him around the world.

"I went to the Antipodes," he said, "in the interests of the Canadian National Steamships and it was a great satisfaction to me to find that not only were our sister dominions interested in Canada but that they had very good opinion of the national railways and our steamships. Wherever I went, I was asked questions about the Canadian National, who is regarded on the other side of the world as a public figure of considerable significance his opinion and judgment in railway operation are studied carefully by railway officials."

NEW BRUNSWICK GOVERNMENT IS SUSTAINED

St. John, N.B.—Endorsement of the Executive government's administration of New Brunswick's provincial affairs was written into the political record of the province in decisive terms. Climaxing a short but crowded campaign with the irrefutable argument of ballots, the electors journeyed to the polls to return 31 of the administration's representatives to power, while the forces of the Liberal opposition succeeded in consolidating a gain of six seats over the total of 11, which was their total in the last legislature.

Carried into office in Saint John County, with a greatly increased personal majority was Premier the Hon. J. B. M. Baxter, whose handling of the Grand Falls power development as a private enterprise, inauguration of government liquor control, and permanent road policy had earned him prime issues of the campaign, while Wendell P. Jones, chosen leader of the opposition in April, went down to defeat in his home county of Carleton. A. A. Dyar, opposition leader in the last legislature, was re-elected with his running mates in Kent County by a majority of over 1,000 votes, tripling his majority of 1925.

Will Discuss Many Things At Conference

Subjects Of Interest To Empire Will Be Aired

London, Eng.—The British government proposes to place no limitations on the scope of discussion at the forthcoming Imperial Conference, but all subjects of interest to the Empire will be aired, declared Prime Minister Ramsay MacDonald, in the House of Commons.

The prime minister spoke of the Economic Conference which will meet at the same time as the Imperial Conference proper. At this side-meeting, he announced, "everything of economic interest to the Dominions and to ourselves may be brought up."

The Rt. Hon. J. H. Thomas, secretary of state for the Dominions, also made it clear that the government desired discussion in the widest possible terms.

Effect Of Crisis In U.S.

Communist Papers Refer To Economic Conditions In America

Moscow, Russia.—Communist newspapers declared that the United States was paving one of the worst economic crises in its history.

Pravda, one of the organs of the Communist party, said the latest Wall Street slump was merely a prelude to a more destructive and dangerous drop.

"America's general industrial crisis," said the newspaper, "has been followed by an agricultural crisis of unprecedented depth and acuteness which sharply decreases the purchasing power of the farmers. The danger of a new war among the imperialist countries, and especially against the Soviet Union, assumes a greater reality than ever."

Chicago Gang Rule

Will Make Thorough Investigation Of Police Department

Chicago, Ill.—A thorough investigation of the Chicago police department and its failure to cope with the rule of gangsters was ordered by the city council at its first session since the assassination of Alfred "Jake" Zine. Tribune reporter, nine days ago, to focus attention on crime.

Mayor William Hale Thompson announced that John H. Alcock, the "iron man" of the force, would remain at the helm of the police department indefinitely.

Exempt From Income Tax

London, England.—Consular employees and other official representatives of foreign governments in Great Britain will continue to be exempt from British income tax, according to a finance bill provision which passed the committee stage of the House of Commons recently.

Will Pay Portion Of Freight Rates

Government To Assist In Shipments Of Lignite Coal

Ottawa, Ont.—The Dominion government will pay 50 cents per ton of the freight rates on all Saskatchewan lignite coal shipped into Manitoba during the next year, according to an order-in-council made public by Hon. Charles Stewart, Minister of Interior. Another order-in-council provided the payment by the government of one-eighth of a cent per ton on all shipments into Manitoba of coal mined in Alberta or in the Crow's Nest Pass district of British Columbia.

The special rates are put into effect from June 1, 1930, to May 31, 1931. They are to apply to all coal used for industrial purposes, but not when the coal is for use on rail way locomotives or for domestic fuel. The order-in-council respecting Alberta and British Columbia coal supersedes another order-in-council passed a week ago which provided assistance of one-fifth of a cent per ton per mile for coal from the Crow's Nest Pass area and the bituminous areas of Alberta. The new order extends the favored area to the whole province of Alberta and the rate is altered to one-eighth of a cent.

Officials of the Dominion Fuel Board explained that the 50 cents per ton to be paid by the government is expected to remove the advantage enjoyed by United States mines over those in Saskatchewan in the way of freight rates. Coal from over the border could be carried to the Manitoba border cheaply, it was stated, on account of the water route between Lake Erie and the head of the lakes.

In the same way the assistance being given to British Columbia and Alberta coal is expected to remove obstacles to its use in Manitoba.

Lumber Shipments Delayed

Cars Of Canadian Lumber Are Held Up At Border On Account Of New Tariff

North Portal, Sask.—The new United States tariff now in effect, has resulted in a number of cars of Canadian lumber being held on the Canadian side of the border pending the decision of the United States customs brokers of more explicit information as to the application of the new tariff. Heretofore Canadian lumber of every description was admitted free, but under the new tariff countervailing duties will apply, the Canadian rate on finished lumber being 25 per cent, and rough lumber free. Difficulty arises from invoices merely stating so many thousands feet of "lumber," with no distinction as to whether finished or rough.

Reduction on autos to 10 per cent, from the previous countervailing rates of 20 and 27½ per cent, will have little local application, and will only affect used cars, as no new cars are imported from Canada. Increases on oats, corn, butter, eggs and shoes, are also immaterial, as these articles are not imported from Canada.

Convention Date Changed

Canadian Good Roads Association Meets In Quebec In September

Montreal, Quebec.—Dates of the annual convention of the Canadian Good Roads Association, to be held in Quebec, have been changed to September 16, 17 and 18. In announcing the change, George A. McNamee, secretary of the association, stated that the Province of Quebec, through Hon. J. E. Perrault, K.C., Minister of Highways, is anxious that the visiting delegates should see the picturesque Gaspé Peninsula, in all the glory of its fall coloring, by the new highway.

Was Prominent Grain Man

Montreal, Que.—A. P. Stuart, president of the British Empire Grain Company, and a member of the Montreal Corn Exchange, died here recently, aged 80. Mr. Stuart was born in Plymouth, England, and came to Canada in 1870, to become a private banker in Deloraine, Manitoba. Later he entered the grain business in Winnipeg, moving eventually to New York, London, England, and finally to Montreal. He is survived by his widow, one son and three daughters.

Succeeds Late Dean Rutherford

Saskatoon, Sask.—Professor A. M. Shaw, head of the Animal Husbandry Department at the University of Saskatchewan, has been appointed dean of the College of Agriculture in succession to Dean W. J. Rutherford, who died three weeks ago. It has been announced by Dr. W. C. Murray, president of the university.

BALDWIN WILL NOT CONFER WITH PRIME MINISTER

London, England.—It is understood that Rt. Hon. Stanley Baldwin, Conservative leader, has declined to accept the invitation of Prime Minister Ramsay MacDonald to participate in a conference of the three party leaders on the emergency problem of unemployment.

Mr. Baldwin's reply was sent to the Prime Minister after consultation with leading Conservatives.

These advisers, it is said, took the view that Conservative abstention from the conference would not prevent the Government from introducing to the House of Commons any measures they might evolve to meet the critical situation. The Conservatives pointed out that these measures should be with the support of the Rt. Hon. David Lloyd George and his Liberal followers. Mr. Lloyd George having pledged co-operation in any "sound and effective" legislation, would be passed by the House. The Conservatives feel the present Government is incapable of dealing with unemployment and resent Mr. MacDonald's refusal to allow the opposition access to official data on the present condition of trade, industry and unemployment. With sufficient material to go upon, the Conservative chieftain submitted, the party could not promulgate any constructive action, as it would like to do, but must be merely a rubber-stamp for the Labor Government's plans.

Sir Austen Chamberlain opened the Conservative attack. He twitted Mr. Lloyd George for his recent "wool" of Mr. MacDonald. "But the Prime Minister," Sir Austen added, "has been rather coy."

"The leader of the Liberal Party," Sir Austen exclaimed, "has shown a desire to share the power of the government without a readiness to accept the responsibility, while the Prime Minister wants to share the responsibility and still retain the power."

The Conservative speaker charged the government was barren of a policy regarding unemployment and barren of a policy on Empire trade. Yet the Dominions—the latest example came from Canada—had shown that in cases where they could not find their own needs, they would rather buy from Britain than from the outside world.

Admiral Byrd Returns

Reaches Rorke's Drift

New York, N.Y.—Aerial conqueror of both ends of the earth, Rear Admiral Richard E. Byrd set foot again on Lower Manhattan from which he sailed 16 months ago on a pilgrimage of exploration into the white wastes of Antarctica.

Surrounded in sea and sky and on the land by a roaring welcome in which "planes and harbour craft and cheering thousands joined, he debarbed from the city-welcoming tug, "Macoma," to receive from the City of New York, the third and by far the most boisterous greetings it has tendered to him for his achievements of exploration by air.

Saskatchewan Highways

Saskatoon, Sask.—Before the snow flies again, the provincial highways department expects to have completed and in full use, gravel roadways from Lloydminster via Saskatoon to Yorkton, and from Moose Jaw, via this city, to Prince Albert National Park.

Enter Red-Hot Fire Box

A remarkable example of bravery and quick thinking has been rewarded recently in the citation of Engineer H. J. Storey, Brookmere, B.C. (left), and Fireman A. Fulkerson, Penitence, for 10 merit marks, Canadian Pacific Railway recognition of conspicuous merit.

These two men while driving engine No. 570 at Hope, B.C., found grates dislodged from the grate carrier. Though the engine was under a full head of steam, they jumped the fire and taking turns in the task entered the red-hot fire box and worked until they replaced the grates and connected up all operating rods. Only a few inches from the scorching sides of the firebox, they found the heat intense and one man would replace the other after a minute's work. They brought their train to destination only a few minutes behind scheduled time, saving a serious delay.

Storm Creates Panic At Ascot Race Meet

Well Known Bookmaker Killed By Bolt Of Lightning

Ascot, Eng.—Panic swept through the throngs of Ascot race meeting when a sudden, terrific electrical storm broke over the enclosures and a bolt of lightning struck and killed Walter Holbein, well-known north of England bookmaker, in "Tallernall's" betting ring only a few yards away from the King and Queen and their royal guests.

Society women, caught in a rush for shelter when a deluge descended upon the throng, were thrown to the muddy ground and trampled under feet.

Hats were knocked off, parasols were lost and some of the women arrived at the stands without their slippers, which had been left behind, stuck in the mud or torn from their feet.

The King and Queen, accompanied by the Prince of Wales and escorted by many of their guests at Windsor Castle, had arrived in motor cars and were in the royal box when the storm occurred.

Hoover Halts Soviet Plan

Negotiations For Building Bombing Planes Are Stopped

Baltimore.—Negotiations between the Soviet Government and the Glenn L. Martin Company, of Baltimore, for the manufacture of 20 twin-engine bombing planes at a cost of approximately $2,000,000 have just been halted by the Hoover administration, according to a despatch from Washington.

"In view of the precarious situation existing just across the Russian border in Afghanistan and India, where British planes have been bombing rebels," says the despatch, "and also in view of the somewhat strained political situation along the Polish border, it is believed in some quarters that the Hoover action was motivated by a desire not to place valuable war weapons in the hands of the Soviet Government."

Crowd Welcomes Bennett

Vancouver, B.C.—With banners of welcome to Hon. R. B. The prime minister will arrive in Vancouver on July 6, and proceed to Victoria where he will address the electorate on Monday evening, July 7. ## REACTION TO THE NEW TARIFF LAW PASSED BY U. S.

Ottawa, Ont.—The signing of the new Hawley-Smoot tariff bill by President Hoover, in Washington, automatically brings into effect some twelve changes in the Canadian tariff as against United States. These are the items containing provisions for countervailing duties brought into effect in the Dominion budget of May 1 last. Some twenty items in the Canadian tariff contain the countervailing provisions, comprising 16 commodities. All of these are not further changed by the new U.S. bill as in some cases the new U.S. rate is the same as under the Fordney tariff.

The principle of the countervailing duties is that the Canadian tariff will be as high as the particular article coming from another country as the rate that country levies against the same commodity entering from Canada.

While the countervailing tariff in this country does not specify United States, the interchange of the same kind of goods between Canada and that country is much greater than between Canada and any other nation.

One of the most important changes with the bringing into effect of the Hawley-Smoot tariff and the consequent application of the countervailing tariff by Canada, will be its effect on potatoes. Canada shipped to the United States for the fiscal year ended March 31 last, potatoes to the value of $1,173,179. Potatoes went to United States from Canada under a tariff of 50c. per cwt. last year, and U.S. potatoes came into Canada free. Under the new tariff the barrier both ways will be 75 cents per bushel pounds.

Oats, cattle, meats, eggs and butter are also greatly affected by the new tariff law.

A new tariff law was put into effect by the United States recently and international reaction to it was reflected in actual retaliation in kind by one government, consideration by two others of measures of reprisal and condemnation from the press of several nations.

Automatically with the effectiveness of the 1,122 rates schedules contained in the Hawley-Smoot tariff bill, Canada's countervailing duties became operative, placing higher duties on a dozen commodities imported from the United States.

These duties, which were included in that government's May 1 budget, are applied on the principle that the Canadian tariff shall be as high on certain articles coming from other countries as the rates those countries levy against the same commodities coming from Canada.

The Belgian cabinet discussed the new law and then decided that any retaliatory measures should await conferences with other European countries; the Spanish government studied requests that it break the existing modus vivendi with the United States as a protest.

In Havana, the newspaper El Mundo, attacking the new tariff law as unjust, says it will destroy the friendship between Cuba and the United States.

The Paris Petit Bleu advocates boycotting of United States products in France.

Il Tevere, of Rome, said the tariff "is the ultimate manifestation of the economic imperialism of the United States."

PLAN AIR ROUTE FROM LONDON TO WINNIPEG

London, Eng.—The government is extending no financial assistance to the British expedition under Captain G. H. Watkins, which is to examine the possibility of a direct air route from London to Winnipeg over the Greenland icecap, stated the Hon. Frederick Montague, under-secretary of state for air, in answering a question in the House of Commons.

The under-secretary, however, told the questioner, I. J. Albery, Conservative member for Gravesend, that the "government" was "putting" the services of a Royal Air Force officer at the disposal of the expedition and was also lending certain meteorological instruments. The war office was lending chronometers and wireless equipment.

The object of the expedition, said Mr. Montague, was to survey and to collect the necessary meteorological and geographical data with a view to determining the practicability of the establishment of a regular air route between Europe and Canada via Greenland. The expedition is to leave shortly.

Captain Geoffrey Robert Sladen Watkins, D.S.O., an officer attached to the air ministry, obtained considerable fame by two recent expeditions. He was in command of the E-45 when it torpedoed and sunk another submarine, the German U-76. Captain Watkins is known as one of the most daring aviators alive.

Brownlee Ministry Endorsed

Farmers' Party Sustained In Alberta Election

Calgary.—United Farmers of Alberta, who strode into power in Alberta nine years ago, under the guidance of Hon. Herbert Greenfield, have again marched to a third term in administration of the province. Followers of Premier J. E. Brownlee, who held 43 of 63 seats in the last assembly, were certain of re-election with counts still proceeding in many constituencies.

It seemed probable, however, that the Farmer party majority would be slightly reduced.

Two of the cabinet members listed as sent back to the legislature were granted acclamations on nomination day. These were the Premier and Hon. O. L. McPherson (Little Bow).

Two of the three seats formed in the redistribution acted on the last session went to the government party. Rudolph Hennig, former member for Victoria won in Cloverland, and Hugh Allen had already been given an acclamation in Grande Prairie.

Two Labor members were sent back to the legislature from Lethbridge and Edmonton. Andrew Smeaton, in Lethbridge, defeated W. D. Hanson, and Robert Barron, in Edmonton, in a three-cornered contest. In Edmonton, Chris Pattinson defeated Charles Payne, Liberal.

Predicts Another War

Russian Commissioner Delivers His Periodic Warning Of Outbreak

Moscow, Russia.—Clement Voroshilov, commissar of war, has delivered one of his periodic warnings of the outbreak of another great war.

He said that the United States, Japan, Great Britain and France this year would spend $7,000,000,000 gold rubles (about $2,850,000,000) on armaments compared to only 2,500,000,000 in 1913, and he interpreted that as indicating clearly that those countries are preparing intensively and rapidly for war.
